May 25, 2013, Daily News

Saturday, 25 May 2013
Last Updated Sunday, 26 May 2013

MRG: Global Pay-TV Subs Hit 800 Million
World Screen
The total number of pay-TV subscribers—cable, satellite and IPTV—now tops 800 million households. MRG reports that in the cable segment, the majority of global subscriber growth was in Asia, driven in particular by China, India and Vietnam. Other ...

iBAHN installs guest room entertainment technology and WiFi in ...
Breaking Travel News (press release)
That is why we selected iBAHN to install IPTV that will deliver memorable guest room entertainment and an advanced WiFi system that will keep up with the ...

Motama Highlights OTT, IPTV Products
Light Reading
SAARBRUCKEN, Germany -- At this year's ANGA COM event in Cologne, Motama will present the latest extensions of its product portfolio. Motama's servers offer a one-stop turn-key solution providing end-to-end delivery, for both Internet/Over-the-Top ...

Why some Telcos are going OTT only
Broadcast Engineering (blog)
One factor was Ireland's unique stance of including OTT linear TV within its broadcasting act in 2009. Most countries' broadcasting legislation predated OTT or sometimes even IPTV and including it makes deployment for full blown linear services much ...

Former DJ Hero devs exploring IPTV for multi-platform project
Joystiq
DJ Hero developer FreeStyle Games is hiring a producer for IPTV gaming, according to a job listing on LinkedIn. The position will lead "the development of new multi-platform games with specific emphasis on online infrastructure-heavy video applications ...

Tech Analyst Jeff Kagan on AT&T Having Fastest 4G LTE Wireless ...
DigitalJournal.com (press release)
He follows wireless, telecom, Internet, cable television and IPTV. He also follows the wide consumer electronics and technology space. Reporters: Jeff Kagan ...

New metadata enables legal content sharing across IPTV platforms
Broadcast Engineering
At last, IPTV is getting a standard framework for interoperability of rights information as a result of cooperation between the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) and ITU. The two bodies have come up with a new metadata standard to ensure ...

Tulix Systems Launches the Caribcast TV for Android and Google TV
PR.com (press release)
Atlanta, GA, May 24, 2013 --(PR.com)-- Tulix Systems, the innovation leader in streaming solutions, CDN services and IPTV CRM applications, today announced the company has released the Google TV application for its long stand client, Caribcast TV.