

May 27, 2013, Daily News

Monday, 27 May 2013

Last Updated Monday, 27 May 2013

800 mn pay TV homes globally: Multimedia Research Group

Indiantelevision.com

Total pay-TV subscribers, consisting of cable TV, satellite TV, and IPTV subscribers, now number over 800 million households.

the future of TV

PC Advisor

'What we're seeing at the moment is this hugely complimentary relationship between broadcast and on-demand' states Victoria Jaye, Head of IPTV at the BBC.

Yahoo sees App Factory as production line for success

The Australian

PLUS7 is available on the web and on various IPTV platforms. Yahoo!7 hopes PLUS7 will emulate the success of its other apps: 7NEWS had 790,000 ...

DoT panel says small companies be allowed to take single permit

Economic Times

The DoT panel has also endorsed the move to do away with the rules that mandated a minimum net worth of Rs 100 crore for providing IPTV services to enable ...

France extends subsidy for DTT-less

Broadband TV News

Following the analogue switch-off, France decided to give homes outside the DTT footprint financial help with a maximum of €250 to help them equip with alternative reception equipment for satellite DTH, IPTV or fibre. The original subsidy plan ran out ...

Connect Bell Fibe TV Wirelessly

Marketnews.ca

While it may only be answering a sort of unspoken demand, Bell Fibe customers will find greater ease in the news that the IPTV service's boxes can now be connected to one another wirelessly: there's no more need to run cables throughout the house or ...

Bell introduces wireless IPTV in bid to win subscribers from competitors

Financial Post

... of more than 47,000 customers over the three-month period. Although management admits that IPTV is cannibalizing about 15% of its new additions from Bell's existing satellite TV service, every one of its Fibe TV subscribers is also a Bell Internet ...