

June 30, 2013, Daily News

Sunday, 30 June 2013

Last Updated Sunday, 30 June 2013

Pay-TV penetration tipped to hit 35%

Inside Film

After being stuck at around 30% since 2008, pay-TV penetration of Australian households is forecast to reach 35% by 2017- but most of that growth will come from IPTV services, not Foxtel. That's according to PwC's Australian Entertainment and Media ...

Elemental inks Teleste deal, gives progress report

Broadband TV News

Under it, the company will power the Teleste Optimo OTT solution, which is a complete multiscreen solution for managing and distributing TV channels, interactive services on DVB, IPTV and OTT networks. It also provides content creation to set-top boxes ...

LG Electronics debuts new guest-centric solutionsBreaking Travel NewsNew models in the premium LP870H

Pro:Centric Smart IPTV series are ultra-slim edge-lit LED TVs, while LP645H Pro:Centric Direct LED TV models are ...

Tech Analyst Jeff Kagan on Aereo TV Trying to Change the Industry

PR Web (press release)

He follows wireless, telecom, Internet, cable television and IPTV. He also follows the wide consumer electronics and technology space. Reporters: Jeff Kagan sends comments by email to reporters and the media. If you would like to be added to this email ... Canadians find customer satisfaction greatest for those who bundle ...Rapid tv newsaccess, a good portent for potential fibre-based IPTV services. Furthermore, satisfaction was highest among triple-play customers (690 on a 1,000-point scale), ...

New Hotel Vida Downtown Dubai implements innovative technology ...Zawya (registration)InnSpire instantaneously offer guests the latest web based entertainment, music, fun Android games, and IPTV-channels. Stefan Viard - General Manager of ...

Fibre flexes muscle in broadband services

Informitv

There are now over 650 million fixed broadband subscriptions worldwide, while the adoption of IPTV has reached just under 80 million, or 12% of broadband customers. Most broadband connections are still over telephone lines, but the adoption of hybrid ...

#