

July 5, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 05 July 2013

Last Updated Friday, 05 July 2013

BBC drops 'hassly' 3DIPTV NewsUK broadcaster the BBC has indicated that there are no plans to extend its trials of 3DTV broadcasts beyond this year, stating that the technology has not taken ...

China Telecom Upbeat On 3G CDMA Network Acquisition And ...Seeking Alpha... subscribers that the company would eventually target, as it offers numerous complimentary services like IPTV and video on demand, with the help of FTTH. SK Telecom Retains Neutral TagZacks.comThe IPTV business is booming and expected to reap in immense benefits, supported by a leading number of 600,000 mobile pay-TV subscribers and the ... Vivacom starts summer IPTV promotion Telecompaper (subscription)

Bulgarian operator Vivacom launched a promotion whereby new customers of its IPTV platform Vivacom TV get 50 percent lower prices and access to a HD package at no extra cost. The promotion is available to customers who sign new contracts until the ...

YouView: one year on

TechRadar UK

It was originally conceived as Project Canvas way back in 2008 as an initiative to develop a standard for IPTV in the UK. The BBC joined the party in 2010 partnering up with the likes of ITV, BT, Channel 4 and TalkTalk, with BBC director general at the ...

Sky Germany launches on Telekom's IPTV platform

Rapid tv news

The complete line-up of German pay-TV broadcaster Sky Deutschland can now be received on Deutsche Telekom's IPTV platform Entertain. Customers now have free choice between all packages: Sky Starter, Sky Welt, Sky Film, Sky Sport, Sky Bundesliga ...

Sky channels arrive on Deutsche Telekom's IPTV service

IPTV News

Sky Deutschland's complete channel lineup has just launched on Deutsche Telekom's IPTV service 'Entertain', thanks to a carriage agreement struck by the two TV providers last January. The deal means that 50 new channels have been added to the ...