

July 7, 2013, Daily News

Saturday, 06 July 2013

Last Updated Sunday, 07 July 2013

Global IPTV market worth $12bn in 2012

IPTV News

Telecoms operators continue to grab an ever-greater share of the world's pay-TV revenues, with telco-delivered IPTV services accounting for 6% of the US$ 184bn generated globally by pay-TV operators last year, compared to a much smaller 2% of the US$...

China's BesTV signs up exclusive EPL rights for six seasons

IPTV News

Shanghai-based IPTV operator BesTV has acquired the exclusive broadcast rights for the English Premier League from 2013 to 2018 in the Chinese mainland, purchasing them for an undisclosed sum from Super Sports Media Group. Under the terms of the ...

Kabourek named Nangu CEO

Broadband TV News

Jakub Kabourek has been announced as the CEO of Czech IPTV and OTT provider Nangu TV, the company has announced. Kabourek has held a number of senior roles in the CEE region, both at CEO and sales director level. Prior to joining Nangu, ...

Omni Nashville Turns Guestroom TVs into Smart TVs

Hospitality Technology

Omni Nashville Hotel has announced that iBAHN will install IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) services throughout the property's guestrooms. In 2012, iBAHN was selected as the vendor of IPTV for Omni Hotels & Resorts. The Nashville property will be ...

TDS' Fiberville program lures subscribers to IPTV, FTTH

FierceTelecom

With plans to start installing service in some neighborhoods as early as September, TDS said it is dividing these "fiber-served" areas into neighborhoods, all of which have the opportunity to become a "Fiberville" by having residents pre-register for IPTV.

M:tel changes Open IPTV channel line-up

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator m:tel has announced changes to the channel line-up of the Start package. Five new TV channels have been added: Boomerang, CNN, Cartoon Networks/TCM, Travel Channel and TV5 Monde. These replace the channels Baby TV, JimJam, ...

Fanhattan's UI Lands at Cox

Zatz Not Funny

Cox Communications is piloting an IPTV service in Orange County, California that combines cable television with Fanhattan's Fan TV set-top and user interface. Todd Spangler at Variety broke the news about flareWatch late last week, and Cox has since ...

Astro sees content, IPTV boosting revenue

The Star Online

KUALA LUMPUR: Astro Malaysia Holdings Bhd sees an increase in its average revenue per user (Arpu) in its current financial year ending Jan 31, 2014, driven by added monetisation from new pay-TV content and IPTV (Internet-protocol television) services ...