

July 14, 2013, Daily News

Sunday, 14 July 2013

Last Updated Sunday, 14 July 2013

Telstra digital arm starts to axe staff numbers

The Australian

TELSTRA'S digital media and IPTV division has begun shedding staff as part of an internal restructure to simplify and align the division's operations, marketing and sales activities. Twelve roles have been eliminated since April when the telco kicked ...

TasteMakers: Cheese Shop chef wants to redefine sensible dining

DesMoinesRegister.com

'Every Saturday, I would park it in front of IPTV. First I'd watch 'This Old House.' Then 'Yankee Doodle Workshop,' then cooking shows, then Bob Ross. I couldn't ...

Company briefs

Times of Malta

... repeat transmissions of Barclays Premier League matches in English and Maltese on Go sports channels and over both Digital Terrestrial and IPTV platforms.

du wins The Green Award at Asia Communication Awards

Zawya (registration)

We offer mobile and fixed telephony, broadband connectivity and IPTV services to individuals, homes and businesses. We also provide carrier services for ...

UAE- du wins The Green Award at Asia Communication Awards

MENAFN.COM

We offer mobile and fixed telephony, broadband connectivity and IPTV services to individuals, homes and businesses. We also provide carrier services for ...

Tech Analyst Jeff Kagan on T-Mobile Innovative 'JUMP' Plan

DigitalJournal.com (press release)

He follows wireless, telecom, Internet, cable television and IPTV. He also follows the wide consumer electronics and technology space. Reporters: Jeff Kagan ...

Set-top boxes set for record growth in 2013

Rapid tv news

It forecasts global shipments of STBs used for cable, satellite, terrestrial and IPTV digital TV services to climb to 269 million units in 2013, an 8% year on year rise ...

iiNet expands Fetch reach, content

Telecompaper (subscription)

Australian ISP has renewed its Fetch IPTV service with new plans, new channels and more reach. The new iiNet TV with Fetch Entertainment Plus package ...