

July 15, 2013, Daily News

Monday, 15 July 2013

Last Updated Monday, 15 July 2013

Amino Technologies operating profits up

Stock Market Wire

The company - a leader in digital entertainment solutions for IPTV, Internet TV and in-home multimedia distribution - said operating profit before exceptional items jumped by 735% to £1.7m. The total operating profit figure includes a previously ...

UPC Romania looks to IPTV

Broadband TV News

UPC Romania UPC plans to launch an IPTV service in Romania. Once up and running, it will offer viewers 200 TV channels, 20 of which will be in HD and two in 3D. Quoting documents filed to the National Audiovisual Council (CNA), local reports say that ...

STBs set for record shipments

Advanced Television

According to the latest IHS Set-Top Box Market Monitor report, global shipments of STBs used for cable, satellite, terrestrial and IPTV digital TV services are forecast to climb to 269 million units this year, up eight per cent from 250 million in 2012 ...

Casa Systems Selected by Guangzhou Digital Media Group for Large-Scale ...

Broadway World

Guangzhou is China's sixth largest city with an estimated population of 12.7 million people, representing two million subscribers, including 165,000 broadband subscribers and 170,000 IPTV subscribers. Guangzhou has previously selected Casa's C10G ...

IHS: Set-top shipments increasing despite TV Everywhere initiatives

FierceIPTV

The research said STB shipments for cable, satellite, terrestrial and IPTV digital TV services will rise 8 percent this year to 269 million units, 19 million more than the 250 million units that shipped in 2012. Not only that, but even as connected TVs ...

Telstra cuts jobs from digital media unit

Business Spectator

Telstra is set to cut another 55 jobs as part of a restructure of its digital media and IPTV division. According to The Australian, around 12 roles have already been cut from the telco as part of a process initiated in April. While another 43 jobs have ...

AT&T acquires Leap Wireless for $1.19B

FierceIPTV

In addition to mobile Internet, however, AT&T has said Project VIP will use broadband wireless to supplement and, in some cases, actually replace wireline broadband, including broadband-based IPTV, in rural areas of the country and those places where ...