

July 18, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 18 July 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 18 July 2013

Foxtel to launch TV Everywhere next month

IPTV News

Australian telco Foxtel has indicated that it plans to launch a new over-the-top TV service called 'Play' next month, bringing over 40 linear channels to a variety of connected devices such as smart TVs, PCs and smartphones, with no lock-in contracts ...

Oz IPTV launch date set

C21Media

Australian satellite broadcaster Foxtel has confirmed its IPTV service, Foxtel Play, will launch in mid-August. Offering more than 40 channels and at least 2,000 catch-up programmes on-demand, the service will be pitched at the 70% of the population ...

HickoryTech Deploys Amino Set-Tops

Light Reading

HickoryTech Corporation (NASDAQ: HTCO), the leading provider serving business and residential customers in the upper Midwest, has deployed Amino's HD set-top boxes as part of its IPTV service offering. Working closely with one of its US distributors ...

Internet-linked surveillance on Charbagh station soon

Hindustan Times

"The IPTV link will allow senior officers to track passenger movement on the station premises 24X7 on their computer and even on laptops or Android-enabled mobile phones," senior superintendent of police (GRP) Manoj Kumar said. "The IPTV footage can ...

Telephone Corp. Announces the Sale of its IPTV Assets to Coastline ...

Sacramento Bee

VANCOUVER, July 18, 2013 -- /CNW/ - Vancouver-based Telephone Corp. (OTCQB:TLPH), one of the world's local digital telecommunications companies, announced today that it has reached an agreement to sell all its IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) ...

ITU puts G.fast on track for 2014 approval

FierceIPTV

Share. Tools. Comment; Print · Contact Author · Reprint. The ITU has offered multiple rays of hope for telcos that want to get into the IPTV space but are unwilling or unable to build out fiber infrastructure to deliver the necessary broadband speeds.

HomeGrid Forum certifies 12 HomePNA products from Arris, Pace, others

FierceIPTV

Twelve new products from seven vendors have been certified HomePNA compliant by the HomeGrid Forum, marking the first such certification since the two bodies merged in late May. The newly certified products include set-top boxes from Arris (Nasdaq: ...

Verizon FiOS hits 5 million subscriber mark as consumer revenues climb

FierceIPTV

Verizon (NYSE: VZ) added 140,000 FiOS video customers in the second quarter and now has more than 5 million customers nationwide, the carrier said in announcing second quarter earnings. The 140,000 additions were less than the 169,000 video subs ...