

July 19, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 19 July 2013

Last Updated Friday, 19 July 2013

China leads M2M growth, IPTV subscriber market (and global cybersecurity fears)

TelecomsTech

Despite growing cybersecurity concerns regarding China; the country can't be stopped in terms of pushing technological boundaries – leading both global M2M growth and IPTV subscribers. Throughout the second half of 2012, the number of cellular ...

TalkTalk fills pay TV role

C21Media

Henrik Karlberg is now head of pay TV at TalkTalk, which runs YouView, the UK broadcaster-backed DTT/IPTV hybrid service. Karlberg will report to executive commercial director Tristia Harrison in the role. He joins TalkTalk having previously worked at ...

Slovak Telekom: “It is really impressive how many HbbTV devices have been ...

IPTV News

Eugen Mikóczy, innovation expert at Slovak Telekom, discusses the pending launch of HbbTV in Slovakia, continued fragmentation of the smart TV market, and whether OTT services are going to make a big dent in the Slovakian TV market. Eugen will be ...

Telephone to sell IPTV assets to Coastline Broadcasting

Telecompaper (subscription)

Digital telecommunications company, Telephone has announced it has reached an agreement to sell all its IPTV assets to Coastline Broadcasting Limited of Black Creek, British Columbia. The sale provides for the transfer of all Telephone's IPTV ...

Deutsche Telekom launches TV Everywhere

IPTV News

Germany's Deutsche Telekom has launched a new TV Everywhere service called 'Entertain to Go', which will provide customers with access to 40 linear ...

Capital FM Kenya

Foxtel Play to launch in August

B&T Marketing & Media-Jul 17, 2013

Foxtel's IPTV offering Play will be in market within a month, with the company's executive director of television Brian Walsh announcing a mid-August launch at ...

NSN sees drop in sales

IPTV News

Infrastructure vendor Nokia Siemens Networks (soon to be just Nokia) reported a year-on-year drop in sales of 17 per cent for 2Q13. Revenue generated by the ...