

Aug. 1, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 01 August 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 01 August 2013

HD Foxtel Play waits on better broadband ZDNet Telstra and News Corporation joint pay TV company Foxtel is holding off on offering high-definition streams of its channels through its new Foxtel Play IPTV ...

joiz Germany to launch via cable, satellite and IPTV Rapid tv news Swiss interactive youth channel joiz, which is planning to launch a German sister channel on 5 August 2013 at 5pm CET, has signed its first carriage deals. Netgem H1 revenues decline 12% to EUR 33.8 million Telecompaper (subscription) French IPTV STB maker Netgem reported revenue down 12 percent to EUR 33.8 million in the first half, compared to EUR 38.2 million in the year-earlier period. BNDES approves BRL 1.4 million for Cianet's IPTV solution Telecompaper (subscription) Brazilian bank BNDES has approved a BRL 1.4 million loan for Florianopolis-based company Cianet to develop a low-cost IPTV solution. The development bank ...

VITEC Deploys IPTV Video Streaming System at Laguna Seca ... Fort Mills Times VITEC, a worldwide leader in advanced digital video solutions, has partnered with Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca to provide their end-to-end IPTV video ... Electronic Arts teams up with Tokyo's G-cluster to provide games ... VentureBeat G-cluster got its big break in 2010 when SFR adopted its technology and launched a commercial cloud-gaming service on its Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) network ... BBC to examine YouView participation IPTV News The BBC's governing body, the BBC Trust, has launched a review into the BBC's involvement in broadband TV service YouView. The review will focus on topics ...