

Aug. 2, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 02 August 2013

Last Updated Friday, 02 August 2013

Spectrum allocation de-linked from licence Hindu Business Line The new regime will also lower the barriers to services such as the Internet Protocol Television (IPTV). Under the current policy, only companies with a minimum ...

Music that Matters Partners with NanoTech to Launch IPTV/OTT ... HispanicBusiness.com On August 5, 2013, the non-profit organization will launch its IPTV anywhere and Roku video music channel on the NanoFlix network. The channel will initially ...

TDS Telecom revenues rise to $223.4M on strong triple play ... FierceTelecom It saw gains in both broadband and IPTV. While TDS Telecom did lose 400 residential broadband subscribers, it added 1,500 new IPTV customers in markets ...

FilmOn signs TVE deal Advanced Television The arrangement will see FilmOn become the first ever IPTV provider to enter into an agreement with TVE to stream the broadcaster's content straight to PCs and ...

Virgin Media takeover boosts Liberty Global sales

IPTV News

Liberty Global has reported second-quarter sales up a quarter on the same period last year, to $3.16 billion – thanks largely to its takeover of Virgin Media in the ...

US viewing patterns shift to digital

IPTV News

The shift is US consumer viewing patterns away from traditional TV towards online content was confirmed in two separate studies published this week. Fiber to ...

industry Analyst Jeff Kagan on AT&T Reinventing Retail Store ...

Watch List News (press release)

He follows wireless, telecom, Internet, cable television and IPTV. He also follows the wide consumer electronics and technology space. Reporters: Jeff Kagan ..

Hulu and HBO join rush to add to Chromecast

IPTV News

US video streaming site Hulu and HBO are joining the rush to add their subscription services to Google's new Chromecast smart TV dongle. Chromecast