

Aug. 16, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 16 August 2013

Last Updated Friday, 16 August 2013

US IPTV providers must pay regulatory fees IPTV News American IPTV providers will need to pay the same regulatory fees as cable companies from 2014, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) confirmed ... Orange seeks regulation transformation ITWeb On the cards for its South African plans, says Orange, is Internet Protocol television (IPTV), mobile money, Internet services and even a new mobile player, in the ...

UTStarcom Reports Unaudited Financial Results for the Second ... IT News Online As previously announced, the Company closed the divestiture of its IPTV ... Therefore, to enable a comparison of results excluding the IPTV business and the ... BH Telecom introduces six new IPTV packages Telecompaper (subscription) Bosnian operator BH Telecom has upgraded the existing IPTV packages Moja TV, providing customers with more benefits and lower prices. Users of the Moja ... Week in research: Roku rules streaming media device world; IPTV ... FierceTelecom U.S. IPTV gains on cable: IPTV may only hold 11 percent of the market ... The IPTV market was the only U.S. pay-TV segment to achieve growth in Q2 2013, the ... SHOWBIZ: Hypp anywhere, anytime New Straits Times TELEKOM Malaysia's (TM) IPTV service Hypp TV — powered by broadband service UniFi — is now available to all Streamyx 4mbps and 8mbps customers on ...

Foxtel Play's killer feature: live sport Good Gear Guide Foxtel Play is kicking goals left and right with sports fans, securing streaming coverage of two popular sporting series for its streaming IPTV service. None.