

Sept. 9, 2013, Daily News

Monday, 09 September 2013

Last Updated Monday, 09 September 2013

UK sport events push Sky digital viewing to record levels IPTV News Major sporting events, especially the Ashes, the new Premier League football season and football's transfer window deadline, have helped UK pay-TV market ... Albis Technologies + Beenius—Giveaway @ IBC2013 (Of ... SatNews Publishers The entry-level compact designed SceneGate Micro STB is ideal for classic IPTV services. The cost-effective platform delivers quality video using HDMI as the ...

Deutsche Telekom: We don't need no steenkin' set tops Register The large majority of these installations are IPTV-based, with a handful based on direct-to-home satellite, and we have Deutsche set to reach some 8 million pay ... Verizon-TMS deal boosts content discovery IPTV News Verizon has struck a deal with navigation specialist TMS that will see the US telco giant use TMS products in its FiOS TV entertainment guides – making it easier ...

Kabel Deutschland shareholders urged to accept Vodafone takeover IPTV News Reports have suggested that the deal could fall short of the 75% approval rate required to go through, with the Financial Times reporting that acceptance offers ...

Paramount Channel HD launched in France Broadband TV News The channel, which feature movies from the Paramount studios, is now available on the cable network of Numericable and the IPTV platforms from Bouygues ...

IPTV, satellite surge to drive 2013 pay-TV revs to $245BN Rapid tv news 23 million new subscribers have been added to the pay-TV market over the first half of 2013, driven mainly by a buoyant telco TV market, according to a new ...