

Apr. 14 2006 Daily News

Friday, 14 April 2006

Report: IPTV subscriptions in Asia-Pacific to rocket

Asia-Pacific Broadcasting Union (press release) - Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The number of Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) subscribers in the Asia-Pacific region, excluding Japan, is projected to grow from 1.2 million subscribers in ...

New Modulus AVC Encoder Targets IPTV

TV Technology - Falls Church, VA, USA

Sunnyvale, Calif.-based Modulus Video, a provider of MPEG-4 AVC video compression systems, has introduced the ME1001 encoder for IPTV. ...

Collocation and Hosting Firm, eWAN1, Selected by Video Infotec

TheHostingNews.com - Milwaukie, OR, USA

... Scott Kettle, President of eWAN, observed, "Our massive bandwidth capacity and ability to push streaming IPTV content globally is making eWAN an attractive ...

ITU forms IPTV standardisation group

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten, Netherlands

The International Telecommunication Union (ITU) plans to take the lead in international standardisation for IPTV with the creation of a focus group on IPTV ...

Intelsat Unveils IPTV Video Service

Telecomweb - USA

Intelsat is touting its new satellite-based content-delivery and -management service targeting telcos looking to enter the Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) markets. ...

Shenick Announces Major Enhancements To Its Advanced IPTV, Triple ...

broadcastbuyer.tv - London, UK

Shenick Network Systems has added significant IPTV and triple play enhancements to the release of its diversifEye Version 3.0 software. ...

Sun DRM finds a home in Korean IPTV pilot

Register - London,England,UK

Sun Microsystems may have already found its first customer, in a Korean IPTV system, for its DReAM (DRM Everywhere Available) open source DRM, a system that is ...

TUT Systems Astria Platform Named Most Deployed IPTV Headend ...

broadcastbuyer.tv - London,UK

Tut Systems has been Ranked #1 by Multimedia Research Group, Inc. (MRG Inc.) among video headend vendors for IPTV channels deployed. ...