

Oct. 16, 2013, Daily News

Wednesday, 16 October 2013

Last Updated Wednesday, 16 October 2013

KT's IPTV base hits 4.71 mln in September Telecompaper (subscription) South Korean communications carrier KT signed-up 1,000 broadband customers in September to bring its customer base to 8.04 million. The company also had ...

Verimatrix Addresses Multi-Network Video Security Challenges in ... DigitalJournal.com Attendees will learn more about the importance of harmonizing rights management across broadcast, IPTV and OTT networks; navigating regulatory and content ...

Sky has knuckles rapped for impact of catch-up TV on free broadband thinkbroadband.com BT complained about an advert, where Sky was highlighting the catch up TV potential of its bundle, and while they did qualify IPTV based catch up in the small ...

eircom launches eVision TV service Broadband TV News Formwr incumbent eircom is launching its fibre IPTV service positioning eVision TV as a low-cost alternative to other platforms. The new TV service is priced at ...

Lithuanian IPTV take-up grows Broadband TV News Of these, over 100,000 received the Interactive GALA IPTV offer, with the number having risen by 15.2% over the previous 12 months. Total revenues from TEO's ...

Once seen as a foe, cable industry begins to negotiate with Netflix

Broadcast Engineering-by Michael Grotticelli

In a sign of a rapidly changing industry landscape, Netflix is talking with several large cable operators about integrating its Internet service into set top boxes.

Pick-and-pay TV is not just policy, it's an inevitability

Financial Post-by Christine Dobby

Television providers — from cable, to satellite to IPTV — offer basic packages that must include certain channels designated by the country's broadcast regulator ...