

Oct. 17, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 17 October 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 17 October 2013

More HDTV on German cable and IPTV Rapid tv news German telco Deutsche Telekom will distribute the documentary channel History in high definition (HD) on its IPTV platform Entertain from 18 October. ...

TEO receives IPTV boost DigitalTVEurope.net Lithuanian service provider TEO announced a 5.6% year-on-year increase in TV customers in the third quarter, driven by IPTV sign-ups. TEO said that at the end ...

Rostelecom places large orders for IPTV set-tops DigitalTVEurope.net Three companies, SmartLabs, Promzakaz and UZ Promsvyaz, have secured contracts to supply boxes to the service provider. SmartLabs will supply 47,000 .

SeaWell Partners to Enable New Multi-screen Ad Opportunities for ... mediacaster It's been developed for service providers in the IPTV space, enabling delivery of localized, session-oriented ads and programming at the home network level. ...

Kazakhtelecom Selects Amdocs Convergent Charging to Enable ... Wall Street Journal The solution will enable Kazakhtelecom to offer its fixed-line subscribers innovative bundles of cutting-edge services, including IPTV and high-speed broadband. ...

Belgacom continues basketball broadcasts

Telecompaper (subscription)

... clubs and players. Belgacom 5 is part of Belgacom's basic IPTV and TV Everywhere offer. Dedicated to basketball, the channel was launched in early 2011.

Sky pushes on through the the 5 million broadband customer mark

thinkbroadband.com

The Sky financials do not show any split between the pushed overnight content from the satellites versus pure IPTV on-demand content. The race for third place ...