

Oct. 18, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 18 October 2013

Last Updated Friday, 18 October 2013

Telefónica to leave German IPTV market Rapid tv news Telefónica Germany will close down its IPTV platform Alice TV on 31 December 2013. The reason for this is the changed habits of viewers who increasingly want ...

Cabletime launches Training Academy Channel EMEA Cabletime, developer of the MediaStar range of IPTV distribution solutions, has launched a new Training Academy delivering a variety of group and one-to-one ...

DTT has lowest Total Cost of Ownership Broadband TV News Digital terrestrial television has the lowest Total Cost of Ownership per household, while Web-TV and IPTV have the highest supplier value, according to Arthur ...

Telestream Simplifies Advertising Workflows with Next-Gen ... Broadcast Engineering Powered by Vantage, TrafficManger addresses several key challenges which broadcasters and cable/IPTV service providers now face. As more content is ...

Netgem scores with new IPTV deployment eircom technologies

Rapid tv news

French connected home technology provider Netgem is celebrating the launch of eircom's new eVision TV IPTV service. As reported in Rapid TV News, eVision ...

DTT has lowest Total Cost of Ownership

Broadband TV News

Digital terrestrial television has the lowest Total Cost of Ownership per household, while Web-TV and IPTV have the highest supplier value, according to Arthur ...

Verizon reaches 35% FiOS TV penetration in Q3

Rapid tv news

The IPTV provider now has 5.2 million subscribers and is the No 5 pay-TV distributor, after Comcast, DirecTV, DISH and Time Warner Cable. Verizon also now ...