

Nov. 5, 2013, Daily News

Tuesday, 05 November 2013

Last Updated Tuesday, 05 November 2013

KPN launches SVoD service Videoland Unlimited DigitalTVEurope.net Dutch telco KPN has launched a subscription video-on-demand service, Videoland Unlimited, for €10 a month as part of its Interactieve TV IPTV service.

What's On India May Get Funding From IFC DealCurry The EPG product is provided to digital TV operators (cable digital, DTH and IPTV), device manufacturers and app developers for TV and new TV content ...

Quiptel launches adaptive streaming TV platform DigitalTVEurope.net "[QMP] provides a greater than 50% capex and opex saving for service providers over traditional IPTV systems, enabling a quicker time to market while ..

MitraStar picks ST's SoC to develop STBs for Kbro Broadband Telecompaper (subscription) ... clients and dual-HD boxes supporting connected-TV services such as IPTV, information channels and OTT video, gaming, catch-up TV and social networking. ...

Mtel starts offering internet, IPTV in Stara Zagora Telecompaper (subscription) Bulgarian mobile operator Mtel started offering its fixed-optic internet and IPTV services in Stara Zagora. More than 35,000 households in the city gained access ...

HickoryTech reaffirms outlook as fiber & data revenue rises to $17M FierceTelecom Broadband revenue rose 8 percent to $5.24 million as the telco's DSL and IPTV subscriber base increased by 5 percent and 10 percent, respectively. As of the .

Sky D upbeat after strong quarter Broadband TV News Wholesale subscribers are up 155,800 to 280,000, which includes Deutsche Telekom's former Ligatotal IPTV and mobile customers. Sky+ customers were up ...