

Jan 10, 2014, Daily News

Friday, 10 January 2014

Last Updated Saturday, 11 January 2014

CES 2014: 103 million US households will subscribe to pay-TV by ...
IPTV News

The U.S. will have over 103 million pay-TV households by the end of 2014, with two-thirds of pay-TV subscribers expressing interest in features they currently do ...

Alcatel-Lucent partners with Lazus to deploy new 'metro' networks
CIOL-21 hours ago

... to be deployed over this year, will deliver high-bandwidth, high-performance mobile backhaul and wholesale metropolitan services for IPTV and Triple Play, ...

G-cluster: Capital and Business Alliance with Orange
ITWeb

GCG has been providing Orange TV, an IPTV service by Orange, with a cloud gaming service since October 2012. The current transaction will further strengthen ...

Comcast launching Xfinity On Campus at Drexel University
FierceCable-by Steve Donohue-10 hours ago

Two months after launching Xfinity On Campus at Boston's Emerson College, Comcast (Nasdaq: CMCSA) said it is launching the IPTV service at Drexel ...

4K video market still nascent in Canada despite CES hype
ITBusiness.ca-by Brian Jackson based MatrixStream Technologies Inc. announced its 4K IPTV platform at CES Jan. 7. Aimed at small network operators as a way to increase their revenue and ...

Closing the Cave of the Winds
Grantland

In this age of state-of-the-art, billion-dollar football palaces that feature Wi-Fi, fantasy football lounges, IPTV (I don't even know what that is), and giant HD video ...

BBC Red Button launched for Samsung and Sony smart TVs
IPTV News

The BBC has launched a beta version of its Connected Red Button service on a range of Samsung and Sony smart TVs and confirmed it will be available on LG ...