

Jan 21, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 21 January 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 21 January 2014

Verizon CFO: Intel Media Buy Speeds Up FiOS's Next-Gen IPTV Plan

Multichannel News

While speculation runs rampant that Verizon Communications' proposed purchase of Intel Media's OTT video assets marks an inevitable step toward the ...

How The 'Reuse Principle' Drives IT At The Australian Open

Lifehacker Australia

"One thing which is heavily used, especially for media, is IPTV," Mahir said. "We have over 350 units available to them. All the data we collect from the court, ...

TalkTalk strikes Sony carriage deal

Broadcast

The Sony-owned channel will form part of TalkTalk's pay-TV package on its Youview IPTV service. In addition to repeats of US series such as Will & Grace and ...

Deutsche Telekom opens new IP PoP in Hong Kong

ITWeb

The Group provides fixed-network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers, and ICT solutions for business and ...

Verizon buys OTT TV assets from Intel

Total Telecom

The U.S. telco will purchase Intel Media for an undisclosed sum and use its assets to add new IPTV services to its existing FiOS offerings. It expects the deal to ...

Deutsche Telekom AG: Deutsche Telekom launches revolutionary ...

The Wall Street Transcript

The Group provides fixed network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers and ICT solutions for business customers ...

No.1 Chinese TV brand goes global with Opera

Korea IT Times (press release)

... emerging industry standards that specify a unified way to render and serve IPTV or hybrid broadcast/broadband services to TVs and TV-connected devices.