

Jan 24, 2014, Daily News

Friday, 24 January 2014

Last Updated Friday, 24 January 2014

2014 global tech predictions: 'people more sensitive to their data' in ...

The Voice of Russia

Even though IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) and OTT can offer more variety and better services but does not always. In fact, the matter of consumer spending ...

As Internet TV Grows Popular, Regulator Mulls Show of Force

Caixin Media

(Beijing) – Chinese companies have been busily tapping the potential of the Internet protocol television (IPTV) business over past year. More than 20 new ...

Worldwide pay-TV subscribers to exceed 1.1 billion in 2019 with ...

Digitimes

The worldwide pay-TV market reached 903.3 million subscribers in 2013, generating US$249.8 billion in service revenues. IPTV operators enjoyed 18.5% ...

“Where next for cable?” 5 predictions for 2014

IPTV News

What were the most significant developments for the cable industry in 2013 and what are some of your predictions for the industry in 2014 and beyond? If only I ...

Want to be a Hollywood film-maker? Make a short film first!

The Malay Mail Online

... movies due to the rapid developing technology where anyone can make a movie using just a smartphone and growing popularity of IPTV and TV networks.

Multitask & multiscreen: TiVo survey reveals viewing habits

IPTV News

TiVo have announced the results of its 2013 Social Media and Multitasking Survey. The survey found that, despite the prevalence of multitasking in everyday life, ...

Telin: “Cloud TV will be a future trend”

IPTV News

IP&TV News: Hi Henri. You're Telin's VP for Innovation Management. What innovations have Telin introduced in the last year you think are especially interesting ...