

Jan 28, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 28 January 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 28 January 2014

The Future of TV: Internet Television Tech on the Rise

IPWatchdog.com

Instead of receiving TV data through a single cable and using a tuner to decode the data signal, an IPTV set displays a video stream sent across a dedicated ...

AT&T boosted by mobile data services

Financial Times

But the decline in fixed line revenues is slowing because the loss of traditional phone lines is being offset by the growth of its U-verse IPTV and broadband ...

KT Corp reports an 83.6% drop in net profit in 2013

TeleGeography

Broadband access rose slightly against end-2012, with KT saying it served 8.067 million such subscribers, up from 8.037 million, while IPTV customers ...

TD analyst argues investors should favour Telus stock over Rogers

Financial Post-by Christine Dobby

On the television side, Telus has already invested heavily in its Optik TV IPTV roll-out and the analyst projected 2014 will be the start of an upswing in ...

Breaking boxing news or tips? Submit to: editor (at) ProBoxing-Fans ...

Pro Boxing Fans

"IPTV is the future in terms of watching entertainment. Our series is old school boxing with cigars, Scotch, tables and seats for 500, in an intimate environment.

Music for TVs

StarPhoenix

It buys the licences to songs and then sells the music as pre-programmed packages to cable and satellite operators or IPTV service providers such as Bell, ...

Infonetics: Cable's Share of Pay-TV Market Continues to Shrink as ...

Broadway World

"Telco IPTV operators AT&T, China Telecom, and Deutsche Telekom continue to enjoy strong growth in new subscribers and ARPU, showing that competitive ...

#