

Feb 6, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 06 February 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 06 February 2014

Telekom Malaysia launches IPTV service promotion

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telekom Malaysia Berhad has launched an offer dubbed 'The Best Ever Hypp-Normous Deal'. Streamyx and UniFi customers can now upgrade their broadband ...

BCE Inc hikes dividend as earnings meet expectations

Windsor Star-by Christine Dobby

Desjardins Securities analyst Maher Yaghi said as the company's IPTV footprint grows, it should continue to report improved results in its wireline business, ...

Sky Deutschland Q4 Net Loss Narrows, Sees Growth In FY14: Stock ...

RTT News

... the number of wholesale subscribers increased by 143,000 to 268,000 with the inclusion of Deutsche Telekom's former Ligatotal IPTV and mobile customers.

Google Chromecast thrown open to developers

IPTV News

Google has announced and released the Google Cast Software Development Kit (DDK) for developers who want to build Chromecast support into their apps ...

Swisscom TV reaches a million

Broadband TV News

swisscom-zurich Swisscom said that the number of its IPTV homes has grown with 209,000 subs to reach one million in 2013, up 26.4%. The new milestone ...

Satellite, cable dominate TV homes in Germany - study

Telecompaper (subscription)

DVB-T homes reached 2.08 million, compared to 2.05 million a year earlier, with the number of IPTV homes reaching 1.46 million, up from 1.26 million.

Ericsson doubles down on multiscreen with Azuki purchase

Communications, Engineering & Design Magazine

The diversity of the client list — programmers, IPTV, wireless, and cable — no doubt made Azuki attractive to Ericsson, which has a similarly diverse clientele.