

Feb 11, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 11 February 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 12 February 2014

Mobile video viewing continues to soar

IPTV News

Despite continued growth of online video viewing on connected CE devices and excitement from new platforms like Google's Chromecast and new consoles ...

IPTV flourishes in Arab World

Advanced Television

Fourteen service providers in nine countries in the Arab World offered IPTV services by October 2013, up from eleven service providers in eight countries ...

Quickflix gets serious about content

AdNews

Marlow, a former head of programming at Network Ten in the '90s, has over 20 years' experience in the media and entertainment industry across IPTV, ...

Global Connected Video Device Market 2014-2018

The International News Magazine

Until recently, live broadcasting was only possible through IPTV networks managed by service providers, but OTT delivers video and audio data using the ...

Ericsson acquires Azuki Systems

DTG

Its customers are cable operators, IPTV providers, mobile network operators and content owners. The company has 49 employees. The acquisition is expected ...

Markets Live: China delights the bulls

Sydney Morning Herald

... broadband market penetration; Bundling of IPTV (Fetch) will reduce churn and add margin; Small & medium business segment due for competitive shake up.

Chromecast Confirmed For UK Launch, Australia Rumors Abound

Society and Religion-by TPvinod Kumar

Telstra, a Bigpond IPTV service is in talks with Google to bring the dongle to the country, according to a report made by The Australian website. The goal is to ...