

Feb 12, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 12 February 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 13 February 2014

Online movie streaming launch delayed by software, Google: Telstra

ZDNet-by Josh Taylor

Telstra initially invested AU$35 million into US-based IPTV company Ooyala in 2012, and increased its stake in the Ooyala business in the last six months of ...

NBC selects Miranda to power broadcast signalling and control for ...

Rapid tv news

Using Miranda's new Streaming Media Encoder (SME) card, NBC will create a closed-circuit IPTV monitoring system to view critical signals from any location ...

Content Stacking on the Rise

Ipsos News & Polls (subscription)

A recent poll conducted through the Ipsos Online Omnibus revealed that 74% of adult online Canadians subscribe to Cable TV/Satellite TV/IPTV. Drilling down ...

2nd screen apps, DVRs aid pay-TV subs quest

Advanced Television

"Their traditional business models are under attack as telco IPTV providers, over-the-top (OTT) providers, and consumer electronics companies – Netflix, ...

MWC 2014: Ericsson to showcase Future TV Anywhere

Telecom Lead

Telco IPTV operators AT&T, China Telecom, and Deutsche Telekom continue to enjoy strong growth in new subscribers and ARPU, showing that competitive ...

Mexicanal joins AT&T's U-verse

C21Media-

US cable operator AT&T has added Latino-focused channel Mexicanal to its IPTV service U-verse after signing a carriage deal with the network. The channel, a ...

CenturyLink, Inc. (CTL) news: CenturyLink's CEO Discusses Q4 ...

Seeking Alpha

In addition, we continue to enhance our IPTV features by introducing new functionality and applications including expansion of our TV Everywhere capabilities, ...