

Feb 18, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 18 February 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 18 February 2014

Ofcom & analysts greet Sky wholesale ruling

IPTV News

BT's successful attempt to have the competition tribunal re-consider its Summer 2012 decision to stop Sky Sports 1 and 2 being offered to competitors under ...

Sky Deutschland: "In Germany, customers still ask 'Do I need pay-TV?'"

IPTV News

No one could have failed to notice that Sky Deutschland has been impressively forthright in its adoption of next generation TV services, doing everything it can to ...

Espial Invited to Showcase HTML5 User Experience in the W3C ...

Wall Street Journal

Espial is a leading supplier of digital TV and IPTV software and solutions to cable MSOs and telecommunications operators as well as consumer electronics ...

Android TV Box believed to be the biggest choice for TV users

VietNamNet Bridge

It is expected that 60 percent of the Internet-based services' income would be from IPTV on OTT by 2016, when the Android TV Box market would see a boom.

Boingo Selected as Wireless Provider for Village of Rosemont, Illinois

Business Wire (press release)

... advertising, location-based data analytics, and consumer products like IPTV, high-speed broadband, and Wi-Fi. For more information about the Boingo story, ...

US phone and tablet TV ads to be worth $5.6 bn by 2017

IPTV News

Parks Associates advertising research has found that approximately 60% of smartphone and tablet users watch 1-5 hours of TV/video on these mobile platforms ...

Comcast-Time Warner Merger Is Good for Competition—and ...

Businessweek

... IPTV (Internet offerings such as those of AT&T (T) U-verse, and Verizon (VZ) FiOS) and subscription video-on-demand services like those of Netflix (NFLX), ...