

Feb 27, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 27 February 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 27 February 2014

IPTV boosts Magyar Telekom

Broadband TV News

Magyar Telekom HQ The Hungarian incumbent Magyar Telekom saw strong growth in the take-up of IPTV services in its home market in 2013.

“Dog eat dog” competition eats up pay-TV groups' profits

VietNamNet Bridge

VNPT's IPTV MyTV service got 200,000 more subscribers in 2013, raising the total number of subscribers to 800,000. However, Huynh Ngoc Tuan, Director of ...

Etisalat, Huawei to test 40Gbps connectivity

Trade Arabia

... Optic Network) technology, which can provide the speed and bandwidth required for seamless services including voice over IP, high-speed Internet, and IPTV.

Net neutrality - a debate we can't afford to ignore

Sydney Morning Herald (blog)-by Adam Turner

Especially when Australia's dominant pay TV provider Foxtel is expanding into IPTV while planning to establish itself as an internet service provider. There are ...

Report: Requiem for the Television

PCBDesign007

... Satellite and IPTV operators, and equipment and Software Suppliers to these companies, including Encoder Manufacturers, DRM specialists, Handset Makers ...

ZTE launches 4K p60 Ultra HD STB

DTG

Fang Hui, Deputy President of ZTE, said: "As a global leader in the IPTV market, ZTE offers a complete series of Internet STB products across the range of ...

Jeff Kagan: Will Facebook WhatsApp Voice Calling be a Winner?

Equities.com

Today they are the leaders in wireless, Internet and more recently television with their IPTV offerings called Uverse, FIOS and Prism. They are also moving into ...