

Mar. 16, 2014, Daily News

Sunday, 16 March 2014

Last Updated Sunday, 16 March 2014

Hands on: Foxtel Presto streaming movies

Sydney Morning Herald (blog)-by Adam Turner

It's a slick first effort, but Presto must come to lounge room devices if it's to be a serious contender. Foxtel has been working hard to expand its IPTV offerings in ...

TV Connect 2014: ZTE gets on Oregan trail for IP, hybrid technology

Rapid tv news

Leading IPTV, VOD and mobile systems supplier ZTE has entered into a partnership with Oregan Networks for the delivery of set top box technology ...

US pay-TV barely scratched by cord-cutting

Rapid tv news

By contrast the leading telcos added 1,460,000 IPTV subscribers in 2013, up from 1.298 million net adds in 2012. Satellite TV providers added 170,000 video ...

PiSlice collaborates with du to increase funding for MENA's micro ...

Zawya (registration)

We offer mobile and fixed telephony, broadband connectivity and IPTV services to individuals, homes and businesses. We also provide carrier services for ...

SK Broadband ends February with 4.61 mln broadband subs

Telecompaper (subscription)

However, the telephony base fell by 9,624 subscribers and SK telephony customers. The company's IPTV base ...

Broadband ended the month with 4.56 million

Bright House Networks fuels 1-Gig service to homes in Tampa

Communications, Engineering & Design Magazine

There's also a roadmap in place for an IPTV service from Bright automation and security services, which will include ...

House Networks. UltraFi also features home

TV Connect 2014: BBC set to reveal future of iPlayer

IPTV News

This week saw the BBC unveil their new version of the iPlayer announced that Dan Taylor, Head of iPlayer, is set to ...

for the web and for TV, and now it has been