

April 2, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 02 April 2014

Last Updated Friday, 04 April 2014

Canadian IPTV Startup Launches Cloud PVR

Hollywood Reporter-5 hours ago

TORONTO - Canadian IPTV service VMedia on Wednesday unveiled a network PVR it claims is a game-changer for this country's TV viewing experience.

SK Telecom Intros Unlimited LTE Data Plans

Light Reading

Subscribers will be able to enjoy diverse multimedia contents services for free including 'B tv mobile', a full HD mobile IPTV service providing real-time streaming ...

SK Telecom to launch unlimited LTE data plans

Voice & Data Online

Subscribers will be able to enjoy diverse multimedia contents services for free including 'B tv mobile', a full HD mobile IPTV service providing real-time streaming ...

Beltelecom refreshes online customer service

Telecompaper (subscription)

Subscribers of internet and IPTV services, as well as of services on the basis of the IMS network, will be able to use the re-freshed section. The website offers all ...

NanoTech's UltraFlix 4K IPTV/OTT Streaming Service Expands ...

Virtual-Strategy Magazine (press release)

NanoTech Entertainment (OTCPINK: NTEK), a pioneer in delivering the 4K Ultra HD experience to consumers, announced today that the 4K Studios division of ...

Cable One drops Viacom channels after negotiations fail

KBOI-TV

The funny part is that many of those channels wouldn't re-sign contracts with IPTV providers because they said their contracts with Cable One, DirecTV and Dish ...

Report: Netflix Sets French Headquarters In Luxembourg to Bypass ...

Variety

“Given the strength of IPTV in France (France is one of the leading markets globally in terms of IPTV uptake), Netflix would be advised to explore partnership ...