

April 8, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 08 April 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 08 April 2014

Global IPTV subscribers reach 92.7 million

DigitalTVEurope.net

Global IPTV subscriber numbers reached 92.7 million at the end of 2013, a year-on-year increase of 23.7%, according to a new report by the Market Intelligence ...

Gogo Offers 70 Mbps for In-Flight Connectivity With New 2Ku Service

Satellite Today

According to Chari, the service is able to support streaming, enabling broadcast TV and IPTV onboard planes. Newer satellites and more trials will also increase ...

Ericsson simplifies stream processing with powerful new high ...

Advanced Television

... IPTV and cable applications. The first product on the new platform is the Ericsson AVP 1000 Stream Processor, the most dense and powerful stream processor ...

Canadians Abandoning Land Lines, Moving Away From Traditional TV

Huffington Post Canada

Traditional TV service providers - cable, telecom, satellite and IPTV - are also facing negative subscriber growth this year as viewers find alternatives and the ...

Eurocinema Launches Online VOD Portal

Home Media Magazine

The Eurocinema VOD channel is currently available to 36 million cable and IPTV subscribers, via Comcast, Charter, Cablevision, Verizon and others.

More homes than ever pay to watch TV

Rapid tv news

Indeed services delivered by satellite, cable and IPTV are all gaining subscribers, with telco providers among the leaders. Three-fifths of pay-TV services in the ...

IPTV: Japan's NTT Plala trying 4K; Swisscom deploying Android boxes

FierceCable-11 hours ago

IPTV set-top box technology veered off in modern directions at two opposite ends of the world when Sumitomo Electric Networks said it would supply UltraHD ...