

April 9, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 09 April 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 10 April 2014

Telekom takes Entertain to mobile network

Broadband TV News

Germany's national telco Deutsche Telekom has commenced offering Entertain to go, the mobile version of its IPTV platform Entertain, on its mobile network.

IPTV subs up 21% in 2013

Advanced Television

Year-end figures for broadband and IPTV, published by the Broadband Forum, show a slowing but steady growth in broadband subscribers with some ...

Elemental announces integration with Adobe Primetime

IPTV News

2014 National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) Show – April 8, 2014 – Elemental Technologies, the leading supplier of software-defined video solutions for ...

Jeff Kagan: Microsoft, Yahoo, Sony Follow Netflix Into TV

Equities.com

They are not cable television or telephone companies with IPTV, but they still deliver programming over the Internet connection most customers buy from these ...

Canalplay launches new mobile app with Chromecast support

DigitalTVEurope.net

Canalplay is available without the need for a subscription to Canal+ or Canalsat, for EUR6.99 on mobiles and tablets, and €9.99 on TVs connected via IPTV ...

678.6m broadband connections worldwide

Broadband TV News

Sky Broadband New figures published by the Broadband Forum shows a steady growth in broadband and IPTV connections. The figures, prepared by Point ...

Ericsson: 3.5% Yield Supported By Smartphone Growth

Seeking Alpha

... including telecommunications and IP networking equipment, mobile and fixed broadband, operations and business support solutions, cable TV, IPTV, video ...