

April 22, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 22 April 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 22 April 2014

Russian pay-TV market expands 16% in 2013

Telecompaper (subscription)

Satellite operators Orion Express and Tricolor TV led the growth in subscriber numbers, as well as IPTV providers such as national operator Rostelecom.

More companies going green in Singapore

Channel News Asia

"We have a meter bar on our main screen of the television, or IPTV, that clearly indicates to the guest the average energy consumption during their stay, which ...

Here's why Apple will bring iTV to China first

Quartz

... because Digital TV Research forecasted China to grow to have the greatest number of paid subscribers of television delivered using the internet (IPTV).

Three quarters say video apps indispensable to connected TVs

IPTV News

Video apps are indispensable for most connected TV users. According to the new NPD Connected Intelligence Connected TV User Experience Report, ...

Netflix reflects on future in first-quarter report

IPTV News

Netflix have released strong first quarter financial results, with the company's US streaming service growing by 2.25 million net members to 35.7 million.

Chernin Group and AT&T to launch Netflix-style OTT service

IPTV News

AT&T and The Chernin Group today announced the formation of a venture to acquire, invest in and launch over-the-top (OTT) video services. The Chernin Group ...

Australia's ABC critical of Sky News' IPTV plans

Rapid tv news

Sky News' plans to launch an international IPTV platform called the Australia Channel to rival the Australia Network have been criticised by the latter's operator, ...

Swisscom picks iWedia for IPTV set-top-box

Broadband TV News

iWedia's Teatro-3.5 software solution comprises the multicast and connectivity components necessary to support managed IPTV and OTT services with ...