

April 30, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 30 April 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 30 April 2014

Quickflix offers unlimited IPTV for $9.99 a month

Delimiter

$9.99 per month for unlimited access to Quickflix's IPTV streaming service? I do believe I will be signing up to that immediately, at least as a test run. It'll go nicely ...

Sky offers new HD channels for Vodafone IPTV users

Telecompaper (subscription)

Pay-TV operator Sky Deutschland is expanding the number of channels available for Vodafone IPTV subscribers. With immediate effect, Vodafone IPTV ...

Why specialty TV's profitable days may be numbered in Canada

Financial Post-by Christine Dobby

The majority of that — more than $2.7-billion — comes from subscription fees paid by cable, IPTV and satellite customers, while advertising makes up most of the ...

Research and Markets: Global OTT Video Market Attractiveness ...

Business Wire (press release)-14 hours ago

For pay-TV operators, OTT video has become an important alternative to the established cable TV, DTH and IPTV platforms. OTT is so prominent that today the ...

BT Sport remains free, BT TV at 1 million

Broadband TV News

... that its BT TV service has finally reached one million subscribers, the majority of which take BT Sport. The IPTV/DTT hybrid was launched in December 2006.

More youth 'cutting the cord' in US, says new study

Indiantelevision.com

NEW DELHI: Young viewers in the United States are streaming more and say they are less loyal to their pay TV service, according to a new survey conducted for ...

High score: Xbox One to hit China

Chinadaily USA

The Xbox's foray in to Chinese mainland comes in the form of a partnership with domestic IPTV box manufacturer BesTV. Shanghai-based BesTV is known for ...