

May 7, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 07 May 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 07 May 2014

European IPTV subscribers will pass satellite in 2018

FierceCable

Change is afoot in Western Europe where, by 2018, there will be more IPTV subscribers than those signed up for satellite services, a new report predicts.

Sky-D marks world first Ultra HD live broadcast of a football match

IPTV News

With the Ultra HD test of the football match between FC Bayern Munich and Borussia Dortmund in December 2012, Sky Deutschland laid the foundation for the ...

Swisscom grows with IPTV

Broadband TV News

Switzerland's national telco Swisscom has gained 52,000 new customers for its IPTV platform Swisscom TV in Q1 2014, corresponding with a growth by 22.3% ...

1 in 5 pay-TV subs make regular use of TV Everywhere

IPTV News

According to the latest NPD Group TV Everywhere Report, more than one-in-five (21%) pay-TV subscribers use the TV Everywhere services provided by their ...

Worldwide fiber-optic broadband subscriptions to double by 2019

IPTV News

The worldwide cable, DSL and fiber-optic fixed-line broadband subscriber base grew 6% in 2013 surpassing 665.4 million subscribers. The fiber-optic ...

Telefónica makes €725m Digital+ bid

Broadband TV News

The telco has been looking to relaunch its existing IPTV offer Movistar TV. In the past Telefónica was a pay-TV operator in its own right through the Via Digital ...

Telus to invest over $1.2B to expand fiber network to Quebec-based ...

FierceTelecom-by Sean Buckley

The service provider is going to extend the reach of its Optik TV IPTV offering in the Lower St. Lawrence, Gaspésie and Quebec City regions. While it won't ...