

May 8, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 08 May 2014

Last Updated Friday, 09 May 2014

Hawaiian Telecom passes another 130000 households with IPTV ...

FierceTelecom-by Sean Buckley

Hawaiian Telecom continued to ramp up its IPTV service, adding approximately 8,600 subscribers to offset ongoing declines in its legacy consumer POTS voice ...

IPTV boost as global fibre subs set to double by 2019

Rapid tv news

The amount of fibre-based broadband networks capable of supporting very high quality TV and services is set to expand rapidly over the next five years says a ...

Sky News launches catch-up service

IPTV News

Sky News today launches its Catch Up TV service. The service, which sits on Sky's On Demand platform, is available from launch to 5 million Sky customers with ...

Research and Markets: Global Video and Ad Insertion Server Market ...

Business Wire (press release)

... satellite, Internet protocol television (IPTV), and mobile and Web-based networks, but they can receive and interact with advertisements that are highly tailored ...

HBO turns back to VICE

IPTV News

HBO has renewed the news magazine series VICE for two more seasons, it was announced today by Michael Lombardo, president, HBO Programming. Season ...

Research firm says satcom terminals wide open to exploits

SC Magazine UK

These satcoms terminals relay data signals including VoiP and IPTV transmissions - to and from satellites that orbit the earth, either in a geosynchronous ...

Global Digital Media - Mobile and Online Entertainment Trends ...

IT Business Net

Interesting IPTV developments are taking place with nearly 130 million IPTV subscribers predicted worldwide by the end of 2014. Table of Contents. 1. Digital ...