

May 9, 2014, Daily News

Friday, 09 May 2014

Last Updated Friday, 09 May 2014

BT fiscal 2014 revenue remains flat at £18 billion, despite ...

Telecom Lead

BT has been keen to put in place its own quad play bundle based on Internet, voice telephony services, mobile services, and BT Vision (its pay IPTV service).

TV3 channel loses viewers in row with Lattelecom - report

Telecompaper (subscription)

TV3 has also lost its leading position in the list of top TV channels, while Lattelecom has stopped retransmitting it over its IPTV services due to their disagreement ...

EC opens investigation into Liberty Global's Ziggo acquisition

IPTV News

The European Commission has opened an in-depth investigation to assess whether the proposed acquisition of Dutch cable operator Ziggo by the ...

The Tech Factor: YouView launches talent search

IPTV News

On demand TV service YouView today signals its continued success and growth by announcing a major recruitment drive that will expand its technology team by ...

Belgacom TV reaches 1495000 homes

Broadband TV News

belgacom_tv Belgacom TV has added 30,000 new subscribers to its IPTV service during the first quarter of the year. The service now reaches 1,495,000 homes.

Sky & Johnston Press strike innovative advertising partnership

IPTV News

Sky and Johnston Press today announce that they have entered into a ground-breaking strategic regional advertising partnership. Under the terms of the ...

AT&T U-verse launches drawing app for babies and toddlers

Rapid tv news

AT&T U-verse TV Kids is going after a younger demographic — in fact the youngest demographic — with an app for iPhone or iPad that allows kids to throw ...