

May 16, 2014, Daily News

Friday, 16 May 2014

Last Updated Friday, 16 May 2014

Zattoo to manage multiscreen IPTV for Telecom Liechtenstein

DigitalTVEurope.net

Swiss-based online TV service provider Zattoo is set to roll out an end-to-end multiscreen TV service deployment for its first IPTV customer, Telecom ...

Estes, other prominent Iowans sing state's praises

Waterloo Cedar Falls Courier

The trio discussed their experiences in the state and their respective visions for Iowa's future during a half-hour show that will air statewide on IPTV at 7:30 p.m. ...

US cable celebrates 'best quarter in years' as pay subs rise

TBI Vision

The US cable TV industry achieved its "best quarter in years," stemming subscriber losses as the overall pay TV market — including cable, satellite and IPTV ...

Espial CEO helping power the smart TV revolution

Ottawa Business Journal

Mr. Dolvane decided to direct Espial's efforts on the hospitality sector and had saturated that IPTV market within three years. Espial's technology was used by ...

90% of Altelecom's mobile sites connected with fibre

Telecompaper (subscription)

Tabak recalled that the operator recently launched 3G and IPTV services and will focus on increasing penetration and coverage in the coming period.

YOU On Demand Holdings' (YOD) CEO Weicheng Liu on Q1 2014 ...

Seeking Alpha

We are in the midst of an ongoing trial of our mobile and IPTV multi-screen service ... smartphones, but for additional price under big screen TV at home via IPTV.

Magyar Telecom BV Announces Financial Results for the Year ...

Business Wire (press release)

... margin due to lower ADSL revenue, which is partly offset by an increase in Residential TV gross margin mainly as a result of the increase in IPTV customers.