

May 27, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 27 May 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 27 May 2014

12 months late, Chromecast finally hits Australia

Delimiter

Foxtel has also announced that its Presto IPTV/movies service will be available on Chromecast from July, while IPTV rival Quickflix has also announced that ...

Bolt Fiber Optic Services adds 1-Gbps FTTH with GPON gear from ...

LightWave Online (press release)

... installation services, and third-party platforms for the network's headend, OSS/BSS, fiber mapping, and Mediaroom middleware and software for IPTV services.

AT&T sues San Francisco to keep U-verse utility boxes on sidewalks

FierceTelecom-by Sean Buckley

... to the telco's proposed placement of utility boxes on city sidewalks that will house the VRAD equipment to support its U-verse broadband and IPTV service.

China for Dummies

Kidscreen

New IPTV platforms are popping up like wild mushrooms and they carry all of the same series you see back home on Netflix. Show-related swag is available on ...

ESPN considers OTT service for MLS fans

IPTV News

According to comments made by ESPN president and Disney Media Networks co-chairman John Skipper, and reported by Reuters, ESPN are in the early ...

CenturyLink: This Stock Can Help You Profit from Broadband Growth

GuruFocus.com

In the consumer segment, it continues to see good results in those markets where it has deployed higher bandwidth and IPTV services. It continues to monitor ...

New sports app hits Virgin Media TiVo

IPTV News-15 hours ago

Virgin Media has teamed up with Eurosport to create a dedicated sporting app for all of its TiVo customers in addition to the existing channels British Eurosport ...