

June 22, 2014, Daily News

Sunday, 22 June 2014

Last Updated Sunday, 22 June 2014

Open IPTV Forum and HbbTV Association merge

Informity

The Open IPTV Forum is merging with the HbbTV Association, apparently because the markets for IPTV, OTT and Hybrid broadcast and broadband television ...

Arts & Community calendar: 22 to 28

Ames Tribune

Family Storytime, 10:30 a.m., Ames Public Library, 520 Lincoln Way. IPTV Kids Clubhouse's Dan Wardell, 3 p.m., Bandshell Park, Sixth Street and Duff Avenue.

Chelsea Handler lands on Netflix with first-of-a-kind chat show

IPTV News

Chelsea Handler will join together with Netflix to create an all-new talk show for the world's leading Internet TV Network. Beginning in early 2016, the show will ...

Reforms a threat to community television

The Australian Financial Review

... said in 2012 he didn't believe the market could sustain a fourth channel due to "enormous competition" from the likes of IPTV (internet protocol television).

Shaw pins hopes for Western market share on WiFi hotspots

The Globe and Mail

Shaw's cable business has faced significant competitive pressure in recent years from Vancouver-based Telus's Internet protocol television (IPTV) product Optik ...

HbbTV and FreeviewPlus: Everything you need to know

TechRadar UK

In simpler terms, it is basically a mixture of digital free-to-air broadcasting and IPTV through a set top box, broadband connection and connected devices.

du partners with Samsung to bring smart converged connectivity into ...

Zawya (registration)

We offer mobile and fixed telephony, broadband connectivity and IPTV services to individuals, homes and businesses. We also provide carrier services for ...