

June 25, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 25 June 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 25 June 2014

Rostelecom launches triple-play promo

Telecompaper (subscription)-3 hours ago

Russian national operator Rostelecom has launched a promotion of its triple-play services for subscribers across the country. Customers using IPTV, fixed ...

Supreme Court outlaws Aereo

IPTV News

Controversial TV streaming service Aereo has been outlawed by the US Supreme Court, which voted six to three against the earlier decision by the appeals ...

Convergence in CEE: the new drivers

Broadband TV News

The market will be good for cable, DTH and infrastructure, while start-ups will find it difficult in the IPTV and mobile sectors. Nocen referred to a number of major ...

Slovak Telekom set for OTT

Broadband TV News

Slovak Telekom began thinking about TV in 2005/6 and launched an IPTV service, branded Magio, in 2007. However, poor coverage, leading to rejection rates ...

AOL On content hits Apple TV

IPTV News

AOL On's complete library of over 900,000 premium videos is now available on Apple TV. From news and entertainment to food and sports, viewers now have ...

US round-up: AT&T snaps up Plateau Wireless; Verizon linked with ...

TeleGeography

Plateau notes that the agreement will not affect its other businesses which include wireline, fibre-optic broadband and IPTV services. Plateau Wireless is ...

DISH eliminates wire clutter with new Wireless Joey

IPTV News

DISH's Wireless Joey system, available today, gives consumers the ability to watch TV virtually anywhere in and around the home without the need for wiring.

#