

June 30, 2014, Daily News

Monday, 30 June 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 01 July 2014

Two in five French homes now take IPTV services

DigitalTVEurope.net

Over two in five French households – 40.7% – received TV via ADSL or fibre by the end of last year, according to the latest survey from media regulator the CSA.

MENA: Samsung smart TVs to feature SHAHID Application

IPTV News

Samsung Electronics announced a partnership with MBC Group, first private free-to-air satellite broadcasting company in the Arab World to announce the launch ...

BT TV enhances user experience

Rapid tv news

After nearly a year of focusing on what users wanted to watch, namely with its sports content, the telco's IPTV division is now turning to how they watch. It says ...

Sony to stream World Cup matches to London multiplex in 4K

IPTV News

Sony and Vue Entertainment will stream two of the 2014 FIFA World Cup matches live to a UK cinema in stunning 4K. In a world first, Sony and Vue Cinemas ...

Does Aereo ruling give boost to FilmOn networks?

IPTV News

The Supreme Court ruling on ABC and Broadcasters v. Aereo has been interpreted in some quarters as a defeat of cord cutting and innovation in television but ...

Aereo suspends service (but says "journey is far from done")

IPTV News

Following last Wednesday's Supreme Court decision to reverse the lower court decision in Aereo's favour, and so outlaw the controversial streaming service, ...

France Telecom Market (Mobile, Fixed) and Pay-TV Markets Profile ...

DigitalJournal.com-

... and offering additional value-added-services, such as Web hosting, personal and business cloud applications, email and IPTV to build on access revenue.