

July 2, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 02 July 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 03 July 2014

KPN simplifies broadband plans with four new DSL, fiber bundle plans

FierceTelecom-by Sean Buckley

A triple-play plan begins with the Instap tariff at $61 per month for 10/2 Mbps internet, an HD receiver for IPTV (60 channels including 15 in HD, 90 radio stations) ...

Signagelive Launches Support for Samsung's D-Series Displays

Digital Signage Connection

Signagelive's SoC software supports different content formats including static images, video, HDMI input, IPTV, web pages and RSS feeds. Other features ...

World Cup: Globosat, Envivio Team on 4K Delivery

Multichannel News

Globosat, a leading content provider to cable, satellite and IPTV operators in South America, has added Envivio as one of its partners to broadcast live the ...

NETV app claims breakthrough in TV consumption

Rapid tv news

Available channels likely to be included at launch will include terrestrial, Freeview, satellite and IPTV channels including independent broadcasters, ...

VTel Wireless expands service to 20000 rural Vermont homes

Vermont Biz

VTel's state-of-the-art video head-end offers hundreds of channels of video over IPTV - the robust new standard of video delivery. VTel offers high-definition ...

Chunghwa's LTE Deployment Initiatives on Track - Analyst Blog

NASDAQ

Moreover, the company's IPTV and ad revenues grew 20% and 37%, respectively, from the year-earlier quarter. Chunghwa is optimistic about maintaining the ...

Interactive TV Monetisation: The Big Picture

DigitalTVEurope.net

... as IPTV service providers, 2.9% as DTH operators, 17.3% as OTT service providers, 2.9% as pay TV channel operators and 14.4% as free-to-air broadcasters.