

July 15, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 15 July 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 15 July 2014

IPTV subscriptions to double

Advanced Television

The number of homes paying for IPTV will rocket to 191 million by end-2020; more than double the 90 million recorded at end-2013 and up from only 36 million ...

Canadian cable firms struggle to develop IPTV

The Globe and Mail

Canadian cable operators have been quietly trying for years to launch Internet protocol television in a bid to keep customers out of the grips of their telephone ...

AT&T signs carriage deal with Epix

Rapid tv news

AT&T U-verse TV has inked a carriage deal with the EPIX Premium TV network. AT&T will begin distributing EPIX as a premium offering across its U-verse TV ...

Toshiba turn to ACCESS for Hybridcast TV

IPTV News

IPTV software specialist ACCESS today announced the integration of NetFront Browser NX in the Toshiba TV platform and the embedding of the browser for the ...

Can Ericsson (ERIC) Surprise This Earnings Season?

Zacks.com

This will enable T-Mobile to deploy advanced IMS, IPTV, web services to their customers. However, the recent unrest in Ukraine and Russia might affect its ... Crafty first OTT acquisition by joint Chernin Group & AT&T firm

IPTV News

AT&T and Chernin Group joint venture Otter Media – a firm dedicated to investing in and launching new OTT services – has acquired Creativebug from Demand ...

DirecTV: Strategic Initiatives And Expansion Plans Key Factors In ...

Seeking Alpha

... Cable (NYSE:TWC) and Comcast Corporation (NASDAQ:CMCSA), and also with IPTV service providers, Verizon (NYSE:VZ) and T. Also, the high-level market ...