

Aug. 7, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 07 August 2014

Last Updated Friday, 08 August 2014

Magyar Telekom IPTV migration continues

Broadband TV News

Magyar Telekom ended the second quarter with 906,551 TV customers, or 6% more than a year earlier, as migration from cable to IPTV gathered pace.

Telefónica rolls out wireless IPTV in Brazil

Rapid tv news

In 2011, Telefónica's venture capital arm, Telefónica Ventures, invested in Quantenna as a core component of the company's IPTV deployment strategy in ...

Foxtel, FremantleMedia conclude 'colossal' content deal

Rapid tv news

Under the terms of the multi-genre package deal the pay-TV company—which operates cable, direct broadcast satellite television and IPTV services—has ...

BCE Sales Top Estimates as Wireless Users Stay, Pay for Data

Businessweek

The company's IPTV expansion along with improving wireline results also helps the "long-term sustainability" of BCE's dividend, Yaghi wrote. BCE dominates ...

Deutsche Telekom Selected as the Exclusive Broadband ...

Rock Hill Herald (press release)

Octoshape is a revolutionary cloud OTT IPTV service provider that focuses on delivering broadcast, enterprise and carrier solutions. Octoshape's cloud ...

Deutsche Telekom "reaps the rewards"

Advanced Television

The telco gained 63,000 new customers for its domestic IPTV platform Entertain during Q2. The offering now reaches a total of 2.32 million customers, marking a ...

Octoshape supports live stream of AvD Oldtimer Grand Prix

Telecompaper (subscription)

Cloud OTT IPTV service provider Octoshape announced that the Automobilclub von Deutschland (AvD) in Germany has selected Octoshape partner Deutsche ...