

Sept. 29, 2014, Daily News

Monday, 29 September 2014

Last Updated Sunday, 05 October 2014

Interstate drives IPTV service with Amino

Rapid tv news

US local telco Interstate Telecommunications Cooperative (ITC) has turned to Amino for key enabling technology for its IPTV service. Serving a number of towns ...

Ericsson broadens TV and media leadership with new solutions ...

MENAFN.COM

Ericsson is introducing the latest release of the industry-leading IPTV platform, Ericsson Mediaroom. The latest release elevates the TV viewing experience, ...

Apple traffic on du network reaches new high after seamless iOS 8 ...

MENAFN.COM

We offer mobile and fixed telephony, broadband connectivity and IPTV services to individuals, homes and businesses. We also provide carrier services for ...

Watson: "TV is becoming increasingly mobile and personal"

IPTV News

We have also extended the encryption system, to support, for instance, DVB-T, IPTV and OTT using the same encryption solution. This makes it possible to ...

Netflix bullish after six-country European INVASION

Register

... will force Netflix onto other pay TV platforms, with Deutsche Telekom having already announced it will be available as an app on its IPTV platform Entertain.

Belgacom secures Netflix deal for Proximus TV

Broadband TV News

The new partnership is remarkable in the competition between traditional cable operators (Telenet, VOO) and the country's largest IPTV operator.

Alcatel-Lucent: "Content rights are slowing down Cloud TV"

IPTV News

Most IPTV and cable operators have started this migration already. In the home, network DVR is one example. By removing the hard disk in the set top box, ...