

Oct. 2, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 02 October 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 02 October 2014

Dodo attacks IPTV market with Fetch TV offering

TechRadar UK

The IPTV market is becoming increasingly competitive, as Telco's jostle for space. Fetch is already available from iiNet and Optus, with the latter offering a $115 ...

Netflix secures 4 new features by streaming smash Sandler

IPTV News

The deal looks like the latest result of Netflix's internal analytics: Sandler is reportedly one of the few actors in the world whose films consistently rank among the ...

Telekom Slovenije adds new channels to IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telekom Slovenije has announced changes to the channel line-up of its IPTV service, SiOL TV. Two new movie channels will be available with Slovenian ...

FOX: "TV Everywhere is still in its infancy"

IPTV News

IP&TV News: It's been quite an active few months for FOX International in the MENA region. Can you give us an overview of the most significant developments?

1+1 International extends Polish reach with Orange

DigitalTVEurope.net

The deal with Orange give 1+1 International coverage of the entire territory of Poland via IPTV and DTH. Orange TV has about 700,000 subscribers in the ...

M:tel introduces changes to internet access and Open service

Telecompaper (subscription)

In the Open Duo packages, the speeds will be increased as follows: Fixed + Internet 1 to 2560/256 Kbps; Fixed + Internet 2 to 5120/512 Kbps and IPTV + Internet ...

Streaming content killing TV - Ericsson claims, while Pivot takes ...

CSO Magazine (blog)

Innovative IPTV and content providers are seizing the opportunities in audience viewing shifts by delivering content in ways that appeal to the streaming centric ...