

Oct. 5, 2014, Daily News

Sunday, 05 October 2014

Last Updated Sunday, 05 October 2014

Cable broadband speed overtakes fibre in UK?

IPTV News

The average broadband speed delivered by cable services is now faster than that of fibre, according to Ofcom research. In the six months to May 2014, the ...

ATCi implements IPTV content transport aggregation model

Rapid tv news

Aiming to enable IPTV providers to compete with free services, Antenna Technology Communications (ATCi), has announced a new turnkey content transport ...

Connected TV set to tune in with 965m users by 2020

WhaTech

Specialist IPTV systems integrator focusing on service providers and enterprises. CombiTel offers unmatched value to its clients based on its unique mix of skills ...

Huggers: 'No long-term future for IPTV'

Advanced Television

Erik Huggers, former SVP for Verizon and former President for OnCue, Intel Media's intended Cloud TV service, has suggested that IPTV has no long-term future ...

Why An Apple TV Set Is Still A Bad Idea (AAPL)

Seeking Alpha (registration)

The new "clean" and global delivery method (OTC:IPTV) is still unreliable and creates bandwidth and monthly cap issues. 5. Content Cost and Bargaining Issues ...

Eastern European pay-TV revenue to push $11bn by 2019

IPTV News

New research from Ovum finds that a string of low-cost pay-TV service launches have stimulated the Eastern European TV sector to such an extent that more ...

Streaming content killing TV - Ericsson claims, while Pivot takes ...

CSO Magazine (blog)

Innovative IPTV and content providers are seizing the opportunities in audience viewing shifts by delivering content in ways that appeal to the streaming centric ...

Half world will be online by 2017

IPTV News

Over 50% of the global population will have Internet access within three years' time, with mobile broadband over smartphones and tablets now the fastest ...