

Oct 23, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 23 October 2014

Last Updated Thursday, 23 October 2014

TV boost for Orange

DigitalTVEurope.net

Orange had 6.956 million IPTV and satellite TV customers at the end of the third quarter, up from 6.306 million at the same time last year. In its domestic French ...

Norbert Willems: "UHD may arrive sooner than expected"

IPTV News

IP&TV News: Hi Norbert. Can you give us a sense of what SES Platform Services has been able to offer to broadcasters? Norbert Willems: As a technical ...

Rostelecom expands IPTV services in the Far-East

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has added five TV channels to its IPTV offer in the city of Magadan. The list includes Nickelodeon, ID Xtra TV channel, ...

NextGenTel selects TDC's IPTV platform

Telecompaper (subscription)

TDC said that Norway's third-largest broadband provider NextGenTel has selected TDC technology for its new television platform. NextGenTel will use the same ...

Deutsche Telekom Makes a Long-Term Commitment to SAS, Anite's ...

MarketWatch

The Group provides fixed network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers and ICT solutions for business customers ...

Thodey quashes talk of early T-Box retirement

The Australian

Shifting eyeballs to the content housed on Telstra's IPTV offerings through a platform such as the Chromecast could also provide a lucrative chance to boost the ...

AT&T adds 216000 U-verse TV subscribers in third quarter

Rapid tv news

The U-verse IPTV business unit added 216,000 subscribers quarter-on-quarter to reach nearly 6.1 million in service. This also represented a yearly rise of ...