

Nov 1, 2014, Daily News

Saturday, 01 November 2014

Last Updated Sunday, 02 November 2014

Amino wins contract for new set-top box

Stock Market Wire

StockMarketWire.com - Amino Technologies it has secured a contract to provide its new A150 IPTV set-top box to a leading European network operator.

New streaming service launches across Sweden and Denmark

IPTV News

TERACOM BOXER has launched a brand new streaming Live TV and VOD (Video on Demand) service across Sweden and Denmark. The new 'Boxer Play' TV ...

CANAL+ Overseas to acquire majority stake in Thema distributors

Screen Africa

... and ethnic television channels to cable, satellite and IPTV operators in France and internationally, to acquire a majority stake of the company's capital.

KT net profit plunges 45% in Q3

Telecompaper (subscription)

Media/contents revenues were up 12.8 percent to KRW 396.1 billion on IPTV subscriber expansion. Finance revenues totaled KRW 867.1 billion, up 6.4 percent, ...

High marketing costs weigh on KT's profit

Mobile World Live

Media revenue increased 12.2 per cent KWR339.7 billion as it added 270,000 IPTV subscribers and content revenue also rose 17 per cent to KWR56.3 billion ...

Canal+ buys Thema Broadband TV News Thema was founded in 2005 by François Thiellet and specialises in the distribution of generalist, specialist and ethnic TV channels to cable, satellite and IPTV ...

Sky TV New Zealand to launch SVOD service

IPTV News

Sky TV New Zealand is to launch NEON, a subscription video on demand (SVOD) service, this December. The new service is set to offer exclusive TV series, ...

Sky Deutschland launches OTT platform

Broadband TV News

... a comprehensive OTT platform enabling viewers to access its premium service directly through the internet without the need for cable, satellite or IPTV.

The Latest IPTV and OTT Trends

Daoofstrategy.blogspot.com

It has been awhile that we have posted anything relevant on IPTV. Since 2009-2010, we saw this trend coming. ...