

Dec. 1, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 02 December 2014

Last Updated Tuesday, 02 December 2014

New Documentary Chronicles Orphan Trains

Iowa Public Radio

... who found families that way, and how orphan trains were a precursor to the modern foster care system. "West By Orphan Train" will air tonight on IPTV at 7 PM.

Are Vodafone set to buy Blinkbox?

IPTV News

According to a report in the Daily Telegraph (and widespread industry rumour), Vodafone is set to take over Blinkbox, the Tesco-owned VOD service.

Cable Ops To FCC: DBS Needs Per-Sub Fee

Multichannel News

&ldquo;That DBS, cable operators and IPTV providers all benefit from the same Media Bureau activities but only cable and IPTV are assessed fees for MVPD regulation ...

Globecast launches Telefrance in the UK

IPTV News

The package is now available via a range of pay-TV platforms, including Now TV box, Roku Box, iOS/Android mobile devices and Samsung Smart TV.

Stingray Lite TV launches in Germany

Broadband TV News

Through the carriage agreement, the pay-TV channel reaches around 270 cable and IPTV operators in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Luxembourg and ...

KPN upgrades HD quality for fibre customers

Telecompaper (subscription)

Customers with the receivers 2260 and 2952 will receive the better picture first, and by mid-2015, other IPTV customers should also get the better quality service.

MTS Awarded a 2014 INTERNET TELEPHONY Lync Pioneer Award

Digital Journal-

In addition, MTS has pre-configured solutions to support emerging carriers of focused solutions (e.g. IPTV, VoIP, WiMAX, MVNO) to rapidly install a full-featured ..